6. Application of Income or Property

- 1) The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
 - a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.

 - d) A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by article 7.
- 3) Subject to article 7, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving:

 - c) The Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting;
 - d) The other Directors are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Charity to employ or to contract with that Director rather than someone who is not the Director. In reaching that decision the Directors must balance the advantage of employing a Director against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the Director's services as a result of dealing with the Director's conflict of interest);

- i) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Directors in the minute book;
 - ii) A majority of Directors then in office have received no such payments;

9. Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

- 1) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
 - a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

- b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and
 - c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
